SUB SS APATHY ISSUE

So, you say, the Subterranean Side Show has finally decided to feature a special issue on the problem that plagues the nation as well as Juco: the problem of apathy. What took us so long, you say. Well, we've been planning such an issue for months, but, well...

Actually, being editor since the Side Shows conception last October, now through almost 40 issues, I think back on all the articles, cartoons, and garbage that has passed through this paper, and all the "response" from the Juco silent majority (an occassional yawn to break the silence), and I begin to agree with Jim Thuot s "Sleep tight, you morons" ad. Here, to set the record straight, the Sub SS is devoting a special 10-page issue to study the problem of apathy. Here....come to think of it, considering the appreciativeness and mentality of this audience, I wonder why we even publish at all. And why we dont give Juco the kind of publication it deserves; mainly, no publication! In fact, .....

A SUCCESSFUL GUIDE TO CLASS-CUTTING

In order to study the problem of apathy among Juco students, the top class-cutters in the school, Lagger Ridings, and Goodwin (who hasn't attended a class since last November), have agreed to share with the SSS their feelings on this dilemma.

"Well," said Goodwin, "you know that feeling you get when you're sitting in the union and suddenly it's time for a class. Well, you dont particularly feel like getting up and yet

sub ss juco poll

In view of the recent events at Kent State, the invasion of Cambodia, and the militaristic attitude of America today, the SSS conducted a poll of Juco students asking the question, "Do you think the world will survive beyond next week?" There were 23 "yes," 34 "no," and 2230 "dont-give-a-damns"
